Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the privilege of working with David Herdeiro for over four years in my capacity as Managing Director at Turbine Kreuzberg. During this time, I have witnessed firsthand David's exceptional capabilities and contributions to our organization. His journey from a trainee to a key member within the Brand and Communications team has been nothing short of impressive.

David's expertise in communication design is truly remarkable. His ability to systematically translate complex ideas into visually compelling media has significantly powered our campaigns. He is adept at identifying opportunities for innovative design solutions while maintaining a high standard of consistency and quality in fulfilling design briefs. David has played a pivotal role in shaping and evolving our brand identity, skillfully filling gaps in our design system and adapting it for new formats and channels.

David is a proactive problem solver with a methodical approach. He anticipates challenges, communicates them promptly, and devises clear solutions. He is not afraid to question conventional methods and explore better alternatives. His commitment to team collaboration and mentorship has been evident in his recent efforts to optimize team workflows and organization. David's dedication to sharing his knowledge and mentoring colleagues has greatly benefited the professional growth of his teammates.

David's positive and calm demeanour, along with his team-oriented approach, has made him an invaluable team player. His enthusiasm for his work and his drive to propel teams forward are qualities that make him a valuable addition to any organization.

I am confident that David's analytical and creative skills, combined with his passion and leadership, will be assets to any team he joins. Should you wish to discuss David's qualifications further, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Florian Möller
